

INSTRUCTIONS FOR APPOINTMENT OF GUARDIAN OF A MINOR (MINOR’S PERSON ONLY, ESTATE ONLY OR PERSON & ESTATE)

These instructions are intended as a guideline only and should not be relied upon as a comprehensive list of duties in a guardianship.

A guardianship over a minor’s person will only be granted if the Court finds the minor’s parents are unsuitable.

You cannot file an application for guardianship over a minor’s person if the minor’s parents are divorced or if there has ever been a custody order from Juvenile Court. You must contact either the Domestic Relations Court or Juvenile Court under these circumstances.

A person can apply to be Guardian of the Estate or Guardian of the Person & Estate of a minor when the proposed minor ward has obtained more than $25,000 in assets.

A filing fee is required at the time of filing. Current Court Costs are posted at: <https://www.probatect.org/about/general-resources>.

Please confirm the amount with the Cashier since filing fees may have changed subsequent to the publication of this instruction sheet. This fee must be paid in cash, certified check, MasterCard, Discover, or American Express. No personal checks or money orders will be accepted.

If the establishment of a guardianship is required to settle a minor’s claim when the gross estate is over $25,000, there is an additional filing fee.

The forms may be obtained from the Information Desk on the 9th floor of the Probate Court, 230 East 9th Street, Cincinnati, Ohio or by downloading the forms from the web site.

A CITIZEN’S GUIDE TO COMMUNICATING WITH THE JUDGE AND MAGISTRATES

Why can’t I communicate directly with the judge or magistrate on my case?

If the matters are contested, judges and magistrates are not allowed to communicate with individual parties. This is what the law calls an ex-parte communication (this is when a judge or magistrate only communicates with an individual party, on their own, without the knowledge of all parties to a case). In order to keep the court process as fair, equal and as transparent as possible, ex-parte communication is strictly forbidden. It is unfair for the court to share information without all of the parties present.

You cannot email the judge or magistrate, as the email is considered an ex-parte communication. In addition, emails are not pleadings (motions.) You cannot write a personal letter to the judge or magistrate as this may be considered an ex-parte communication.

How can I speak to the judge or magistrate on my case?

Typically, to speak to the judge or magistrate on your case, you must file a written motion with the court explaining what you want the court to do and all motions become part of the public record. You also have to send a copy of whatever you file to the other parties, or their attorney if they are represented by an attorney (this is called “service”). A motion is not considered an ex-parte communication because all parties are officially notified. You may be required to pay a filing fee when you file your written motion. Please note, there is no fee if you wish to speak to the magistrate in an uncontested matter, on their assigned walk-in days.

I’ve heard there’s always a magistrate on duty to hear arguments immediately – what does that mean?

There is a magistrate on duty every business day. The on-duty magistrate may answer generic procedural questions. The on-duty magistrate may also discuss matters in an uncontested case. For all other matters, the on-duty magistrate is prohibited from speaking with you. To address the court for these matters, you must file a written motion. The on-duty magistrate will set the matter for hearing before the magistrate assigned on your case or the judge.

What if I need to tell the judge or magistrate something I don’t want the other party to know about?

Unfortunately, you cannot withhold information from another party to your case. In order to keep the case fair to everyone involved, as soon as you tell the judge or magistrate something, you must also tell the other parties. All sides must have an opportunity to respond to the information that you have shared with the court.
